

Intentional play that targets foundational skills

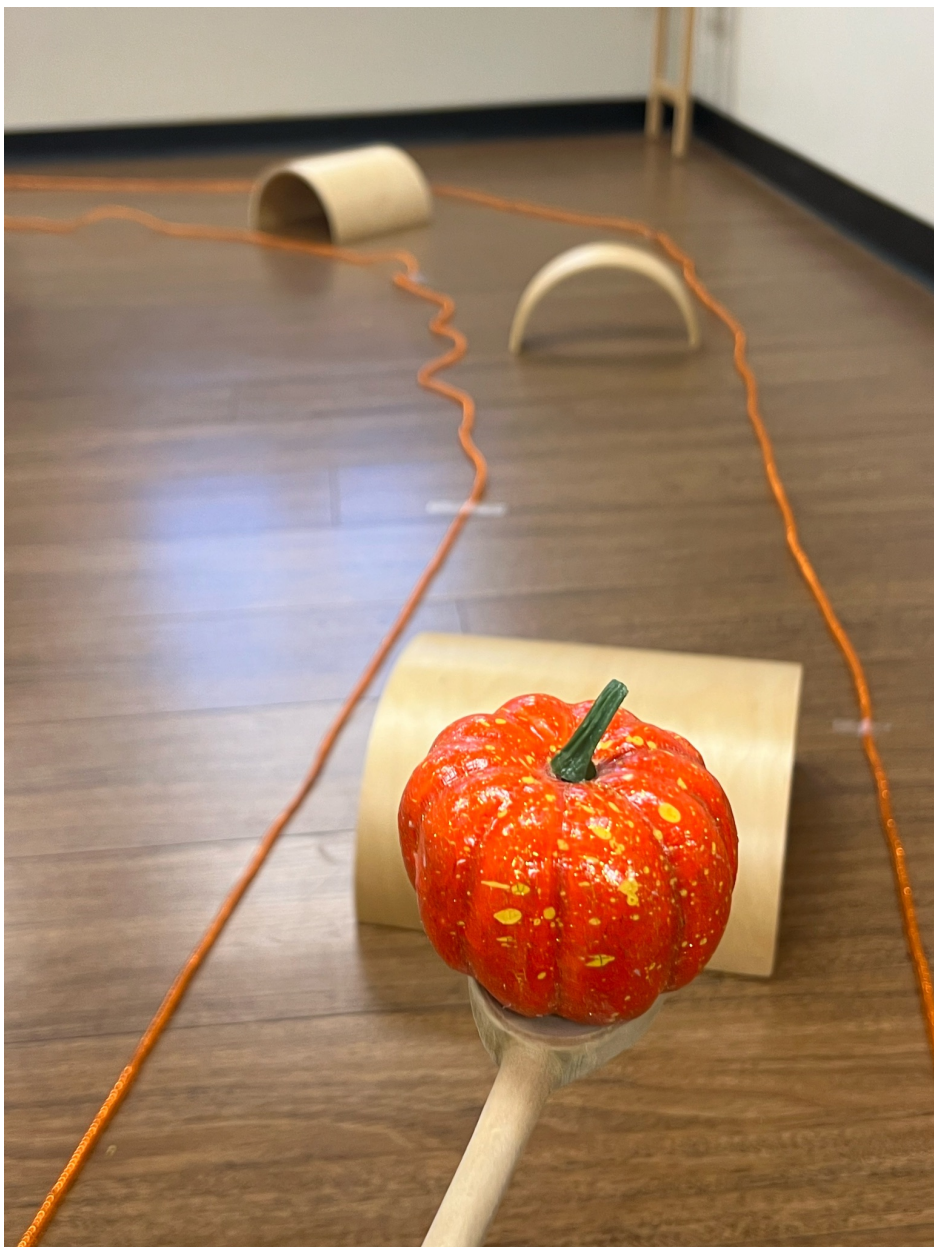

Lessons that encourage independence and foster confidence in various adaptive skills

Our lessons are focused around opportunities for parallel play, flexibility and turn taking. Clients can relax during play knowing they are supported during social interactions.

Engaging activities also provide an opportunity for clients of all ages and skill levels to interact

New materials keep the clinic feeling fresh while also being sustainable and budget friendly.

